SENIORS

Well, the end is finally here! Even though there were times when we thought that we wouldn't make it, we managed somehow. This year's Senior Class officers were as follows: Tina Malcomson, President; Lori Baughman, Vice-President; Sarah Gerard, Secretary; and Terry Haskins, Treasurer.

Financially speaking, our losses from the magazine sales were substantiated by the Candy Sales and T-Shirt Sales.

Our 1980 Homecoming Queen was Tammy Shepherd, and her seven attendants were Lori Baughman, Susan Hyde, Cindy Crater, Kathy Weir, Peggy Piper, and Melanie Anders. The two honorary attendants were Ruth Bienias and Sarah Gerard.

We were well represented in Student Council by President Scott Andress, Becky Hilgedick, Ann Long, Brad Smith, Susan Willard, and Ann Duesterhaus. The 1981 Senior Cheerleaders, Annita Lane and Tammy Shepherd, helped cheer the basketball team which consisted of Terry Haskins, Jeff Ransom, Chris Petty, Donnie Moore, Bill McCartney, and Mark Hatton to our third consecutive Super-Sectional.

Our Senior Saukettes did a fine job of keeping the crowd entertained during the basketball and football games. They were led by Elizabeth Lemons and Lori Harter, the co-captains. Other Senior Saukettes were Lori Baughman, Susan Hyde, Missy Acuff, Jael Wilkey, Ann Long, and Phyllis Hoover.

Along with Homecoming Week, we received fourth place on the original dummy. Second place was awarded to us for the hall decorations, and first place for door decorations.

The winners of DAR and SAR awards were Cindy Crater and Mark Hatton. The Danforth Foundation Awards went to Scott Andress and Becky Hilgedick. The seniors enjoyed a fun-packed weekend at the Tan Tar-A Resort at the Ozarks. It provided us with plenty of memories.

Well, that wraps up the year for the Senior Class of 1981. It has been a great one, and we would like to thank Mr. Johnson for all the fun and help that he gave us. We wish the BEST for the future Senior Classes of PHS, although we think that ours was THE BEST!!!

Since there was no school on April 3, we were able to leave Pittsfield at 6:30 to go to Marriot's Tan-Tar-A Resort in Lake of the Ozarks. The Sunny Land Agency provided us with a charter bus and rain for the weekend. Our first stop was at the most exciting Bridal Caves with Barney as our tour guide. After eating at the banquet and smorgasbord we decided to stop at 7-Eleven. We were very lucky to have experienced lifeguards in our class since our trip included a voyage on the Larry Don "Cruise Ship." Our "cabins" were very exquisite as they were equipped with elevators, split-levels, and their own Market Place. The employees of Tan-Tar-A and our own sponsors commended us on our excellent behavior during the trip. We hope that this will be the goal of all future classes at Pittsfield High.

We were good
But still had fun
Cause we're the class
Of Eighty-One!

JUNIORS

The hard-working class officers for the Junior class this year were Jeff Maxwell-President; Shelly Mason-Vice-President; Kellie Cox-Secretary; and Troy Sapp-Treasurer. Our Student Council representatives were Rick Barnett, Michelle DeVine, Judy Grimes, Becky Lemons, Debbie Layton, and Mary Sheppard.

Our year was a big year for us. In September we had the annual dunking stand at the Fall Festival. We got wet in more ways than one as it rained both days! During Homecoming week we placed 1st with our fantastic hall decorations, 3rd with our dummy, and 2nd in the spirit yell-off. Our Homecoming attendants were Sandy Frazier and Pam Miller. Our big selling project for the year was that delicious candy. (Which we still have, only $1.00 a box!)

As the Prom date started rolling around, the officers really got going. Our Prom theme was "Nights in White Satin." We were well represented with five beautiful girls. Our Queen was Shelly Mason, escorted by Jeff Maxwell. Her court was Amy Barrow, escorted by Tom Lyman; Sandy Frazier, escorted by Bruce Leahy; Leslie McCartney, escorted by Scott Sanderson; and Shelly Stotler, escorted by Kevin Despain.

Our Varsity cheerleaders kept us on our toes at the games and pep rallies. They were Amy Dean, Mary Frazier, Sandy Frazier, and Pam Miller. Our Saukettes boogied down with real style. They were Michelle DeVine, Linda Graham, Betsey Martin, Marcia Meyer, Christy Renoud, and Mary Sheppard.

All in all, we had a great year. A big thanks to Mr. Woods and Mr. Feezel for all their hard work.

"Watch out world, for the PHS class of '82'!"

SOPHOMORES

The class of 1983 had a very successful sophomore year. Officers were George Graham, President; Bernie Hobbs, Vice-President; Deborah Totsch, Secretary; Rick Parks, Treasurer. Our very fine Student Council members were Tom Craft, Ed Greening, Linda Hatton, Tiffany Scheiwe, and Linda Moore.

During Homecoming Week we received first place in the dummy competition with our 15-foot tall Spartan. We were well represented at the Homecoming ceremonies by our two Homecoming attendants, Shellie Hayden and Andrea Raleigh.

In the Student Council Food and Toy Drive the top three places all went to sophomore homerooms.

For money making projects, we had a concession stand at girls' volleyball games, sold QSP products and picked up corn for local farmers.

Special awards were given to Bernie Hobbs and Pam Hull for selling the most QSP products.

FRESHMEN

We got off to a good start with our homecoming projects. Our dummy won second place and our hall decorations won third place. Our projects were selling light bulbs, a bake sale, and a car wash.

Our officers this year were Han Tanner, president; Bob Melton, vice president; Andy Collver, treasurer; and Sherri Fulmer, secretary. Freshman cheerleaders were Nancy Tittsworth, Kate Goodin, Penny Hull, and Shelly Burns. We were well represented in Student Council by Michelle Dobins, Kelly Miller, Paula Collard, Greg Ruble, and Scott Burbridge. We wish lots of luck to the freshmen of 1981-1982.

ACTIVITIES

THE LONG RUN

QUEEN TAMMY

HOMECOMING '80

Homecoming was not its traditional self this year. The Student Council, faculty members, and students decided that it was time for a change. The usual float-building and parade into town was replaced by hall decorations and a dummy-building contest. Each class was judged individually in these activities. The Saukettes, Cheerleaders, and Pep Club hosted an open house on Monday night to invite the public in to see the decorated halls.

Thursday night the informal crowning was held with Tammy Shepherd receiving the title of 1980 Homecoming Queen. Her senior attendants were Melanie Anders, Lori Baughman, Ruth Bienias, Cindy Crater, Susan Hyde, Peggy Piper, Lisa Wade, and Kathy Weir. The bonfire and Pep Rally were held afterwards. The dummys were judged and then thrown into the fire.

Friday afternoon NHS sponsored a Pep Assembly in the gym. It included the Saukettes, cheerleaders, and other activities. The highlight of the day was the pie-throwing auction. Mr. Day, Mr. Kesterson, and Coach Bennett were good sports and received the "pie-in-the-face." Friday the Saukees defeated Decatur-Lakeview with a score of 24-14.

Saturday night the Student Council sponsored the Homecoming dance with the theme, "The Long Run." The gym was decorated in red and black and created a real Saukee atmosphere.

BAND

The year for the Saukee band started as it does every year with the annual Pittsfield Fall Festival Parade, continuing along with performances at all Saukee Home football games. The marching season was very successful with second place finishes at Milton and Griggsville and a prized first at Beardstown. The band also ventured to the University of Illinois to participate in the annual Band Day. Next major event was the IMEA All-District Festival with Brad Smith and Tom Craft in the orchestra and Marshal Burbridge, Susan Willard, Scott Andress, Becky Hilgedick, Penny Ervin, and Amy Dean in the band. Amy Dean, Penny Ervin, and Becky Hilgedick were selected to participate in the All-State Band in Chicago. After playing the annual Christmas Concert with the Chorus, the band participated in the Pike Co. Band Festival in Pleasant Hill with 26 members of the band. During the winter months the band played for every Saukee basketball game and regional tournament. The concert season continued with a Spring Concert in march and a Sousa Awards Concert in May. Five Students were selected to the All-Star Band of WIU: Brad Smith, Susan Willard, Amy Dean, Penny Ervin, and Scott Andress. The conclusion of the school year contained the annual band trip (this year to St. Louis), picnic, and embarking on a fund-raising program for the purchase of new uniforms. Band Officers for 1980-1981 were: President-Brad Smith; Vice-President-Lori Shaw; Treasurer-Sara Smith; Secretary-Ann Long; Librarians-Melissa Morrw and Phyllis Hoover; Student Conductors (Drum Majors)-Kathy Weir and Troy Sapp; Woodwind Rep.-Missy Acuff; Brass Rep.-Susan Willard; Percussion Rep.-Scott Andress; Fresh Rep.-Scott Andress; Fresh Rep.-Scott Portzline; Points Chairman-Betty Irwin.

CHORUS

This year the chorus had its annual winter and spring concerts. Several members of the chorus were selected to go to All District Choir, and Troy Sapp was selected to go to All State Choir. The mixed chorus and girls' chorus received Superior Ratings at Contest. Our selling project was the usual oranges and grapefruit. We went to see "Annie" and "My Fair Lady" at the Kiel Opera House. Thanks to Mrs. Feldpausch and Baby James for all of their help!

RUTH WHO?

Although most PHS students are not able to travel abroad, this year they were able to learn more about the customs and everyday life of the German people through Ruth Bienias. Ruth participated in many of our athletic events and other school activities. We hope that we have added as much to her life as she has to ours!

We got off to a good start this year by placing second in the talent show at the Pike County Fair with a routine we learned at camp. We were seen selling our "Saukee Pride" handkerchiefs at the games and at school. In January we went to the State Fair Convention where we represented Pike County with a routine to "Enough Is Enough." Our final performance was at Higbee when we put a show on for them. The year ended with our picnic at Elizabeth's house.
